

5th Grade

Life Science - S5L1

- Use various live and model wildlife examples to work through animal classification concepts
- Play an animal classification game and participate in small group activities
- Discuss various invertebrates found in the wetlands and why they are important
- Identify which plants in the wetlands are seed producers

Life Science - S5L4

- Discuss the relationships, positive and negative, that microorganisms can have with wildlife and their habitats